MAY DIVERT THE SPECIAL TAX FUND

Homestead Encouragement Commission Wants Immigration Funds for Home Use.

The special commission appointed under a joint resolution of the last legislature to take up the matter of government aids to homesteaders will probably report a recommendation favoring the diversion of the immigration tax to the homestead encouraging purpose. The immigration tax is a special tax imposed on incomes over $5000 for the purpose of assisting in the importation of eligible-to-become-citizen labor. The Russian experiment, as it first worked out, did a good deal to make it unpopular, and there has been considerable talk among the politicians about the probability of the immigration law being repealed by the next legislature. In fact, both the political parties seem disposed to adopt platforms opposing the law.

Now comes a suggestion, however, to retain the special tax feature, but to use the tax money for a different purpose. The homestead loans commissioners are disposed to think that it could properly be diverted to their use. They are planning an elaborate scheme for helping the homesteader to get a start on his land, a part of their plan, as already published in The Advertiser, being a law to provide for construction of dwellings on public lands by territorial money.

The homestead commission will file its report with Governor Peary before the end of the present month. It consists of W. A. Kinney, W. W. Harris and J. W. Pratt.

PRESIDENT'S NEW PRIVATE SECRETARY

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Charles D. Norton of Chicago, assistant secretary of the treasury, was appointed secretary to the President late today. Mr. Norton will not assume the duties of his new office until next week. Mr. Taft proposes to turn over to him many details which heretofore he has had to deal with himself. Mr. Norton is to be a sort of "assistant president" and will perhaps be given a wider latitude than any man who has held the office in recent years.

Mr. Norton is in his 40th year. He was born in Winnebago county, Wis., at what is now Oshkosh, and is the son of Rev. Franklin B. Norton, a Congregational frontier missionary. From his early manhood until he became assistant secretary of the treasury last year, Mr. Norton was identified with the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, first at the home office in Milwaukee, later in Chicago in partnership with A. W. Kimball, becoming sole general agent there in 1905 upon Mr. Kimball's death. During this time he attended and was graduated from Amherst College in the class of 1893. Mr. Norton married, in 1897, Miss Katherine McKim Garrison of New York, and they have three children.

HARVEY HITCHCOCK TAKES HONORS

Named Last Night for Punahou Roll of Honor—Miss Rosecrans Wins in Oratory.

(From Sunday's Advertiser.)
Flowers, song and oratory closed Commencement Week at Oahu College last night in the Charles R. Bishop Hall at the graduation exercises of the class of 1910. Thirty-seven diplomas were awarded to as many students of "Old Punahou" who will now join the ranks of the alumni.

The program was opened by a Plotow overture played by eight young ladies at four pianos, and won prolonged and deserved applause. Doctor White rendered the invocation.

The musical portion of the program was supplied by the glee clubs of the college, among the selections rendered being Woodman's "Ashes of Roses" and Schnecker's "Song of the Illyrian Peasants."

W. R. Castle delivered the address of the evening, taking as his subject the "Call of the Higher Education." He spoke at length on the education of experience to which the graduates had just completed were only a preliminary, and compared the education which they had received in its relation to the "higher education" which goes to make the men and women of the country.

Commencement orations were given by Muriel Howatt, Bernice Smith and Joel Cox. The former chose as her subject the Maid of Orleans—Joan of Arc—presenting excellently the French maiden's martyrdom and the stirring scenes which preluded her death at the stake.

Miss Smith spoke on a more local subject, that of education in Hawaii, while Joel Cox rendered a carefully prepared essay on mat making.

Miss Rosecrans Winner.

Following the address of Mr. Castle, Harvey R. Hitchcock, Jr., presented the class gift, a few words of acceptance being spoken by acting President Reed. Mr. Reed then announced the winner of the Damon rhetorical contest which was held in April, Miss Garnet Rosecrans receiving the first prize.

Premier Prize for Hitchcock.
In a short speech, Mr. Reed also announced the award of the Punahou roll of honor to Harvey Hitchcock, as the student who had done the most for the college in all branches of its life during the year. The acting president then presented him with the trustee's loving cup and his enthusiastic mates in the hall gave a good resounding cheer for him as he accepted it.

The diplomas were then awarded by Mr. Reed and the program was closed by several songs by the glee club and the benediction which was bestowed by Doctor White.

APPEALS OF THE LIQUOR MEN

Hoffschlaeger Reported Likely to Have License Renewed After All.

The last of the denial of the Hoffschlaeger & Co. license has not yet been heard of, for at the meeting of the board of license commissioners this afternoon, so it is rumored, that company will put up a hard fight for a reconsideration of its application. It is also rumored that the reconsideration will be granted and that it may result in a decision to grant the license after all. If it is granted, however, it will only be on condition that the company gives an irrevocable promise to do no "compounding." The company is said to be prepared to give this promise.

Not only Hoffschlaeger but the three or four Chinese who came under the ax will appear to ask for a reconsideration. With these, the issue is more doubtful for their offense is greater in the eyes of the board. The liquor that they dispensed was of the vilest sort.

Another matter that will be taken up by the board this afternoon will be the resolution ordering all saloon doors so prepared that they will afford an open view of the inside of the saloon, from the street.

This resolution is more important than is generally considered. It is commonly supposed that it will permit the usual slatted swinging doors such as are in general use, with only larger intervals between the slats. This, however, is not so, for there must be either coarse screen, glass or no doors. The effect of this order will be far-reaching, for the great publicity that will ensue will not be appreciated by a great many. Ordinary curiosity will prompt all passersby to take a hasty census of those who happen to be drinking in a saloon.

HONOLULU HAS FEW UNEMPLOYED

Less Want Here Than in Any City of Like Size in Whole United States.

SALVATION ARMY FIGURES

Pearl Harbor Reports Attracted Many and All Are Now Working.

Honolulu has fewer unemployed men and women at the present time than any city of its size on the mainland, according to the statement yesterday of Major Willis of the Salvation Army, who is as familiar with labor conditions among the poor as any other person in the Territory.

"Conditions are much better than they were a few months ago," said Major Willis. "Of course, the Salvation Army has a great deal of work to do among the poor here in Honolulu and elsewhere in the Territory, but the number of destitute people is small. This condition is remarkable because of the fact that for a year or more employment has been hard to get in San Francisco and other places on the Pacific Coast."

"Nearly all of the men who call for help in this city are those who have come here on ships from the States or from other countries on the Pacific and found themselves without means of subsistence. The most striking instance of that kind was when large numbers of men were lured from the mainland by reports that more than a thousand men were wanted at Pearl Harbor. Many of the men who came were disappointed and did not have money enough to take them back. Some of them were given assistance. Several of them are holding good positions in the city at the present time."

Salvation Army officers in the Territory are preparing to receive Col. Charles Miles, who will leave San Francisco for Honolulu on July 9. Colonel Miles has general command over the work of the army in California, Nevada and Hawaii. He will inspect all the work here and on the other islands, and will conduct special services at all the more important places.

Major Willis said the army's post for Koreans, on Beretania avenue, has about fifteen young students in English, instructed by Sergeant Yi, and a Sunday school of fifty-five pupils. The organization has circuits all over the Territory. One of the most important of these is at Aiea. The work there is among Porto Ricans, Japanese and Koreans.

COMMERCIAL SHARK FISHING IS LATEST HAWAIIAN INDUSTRY

Shark fishing on a commercial basis is a new industry in Hawaii, which is to be inaugurated by Capt. P. D. Walker at Kawaihau this month, the idea being to obtain the oil from the sharks, to be used for medicinal purposes.

Captain Walker expects to leave next Tuesday for Kawaihau, the waters in front of which have long been known as favorite feeding grounds for sharks. As soon as he gets his arrangements made he will start shark fishing on a large scale. The bodies of the sharks are to be brought in to Kawaihau and the oil tried out.

Captain Walker states that he has the secret of the only known process for deodorizing shark's oil, and that when the oil is thus deodorized it is entirely palatable and has much the same properties as cod liver oil, much of which, as is well known, is made from the dog-fish, a near relative of the shark.

The captain expects to establish a large business, and hopes that within a short time his output of shark's oil will be one of the most important commodities shipped from Hawaii.

HONOLULANS AT OBERAMMERGAU

M. von Holt, who with Mrs. von Holt is touring Europe and was present when the peasant artists began with their world famous production. Mr. von Holt writes that there was an immense gathering on the occasion, among the spectators being Mr. and Mrs. B. Marx, Mrs. Marx, and Miss Marx; Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Dillingham and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hyman.

STILL CHANCE FOR FIGHT

Rickard Renews Hope and "Sports" Grow Very Bitter at the "Butters In."

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—Mayor McCarthy returned from the East last night and pugilism has taken on a renewed assurance. McCarthy has given out no official announcement of his position, but reports in circulation are to the effect that he has already assured Tex Rickard that he will prove to the world at large that he "is running San Francisco," the opinion of Governor Gillett to the contrary notwithstanding.

Following an interview with His Honor, Rickard announced last night that there still remained a possible chance that the Jeffries-Johnson fight would take place at the place and on the day advertised.

Acting Mayor Saucy.

Yesterday, prior to the arrival of McCarthy, Acting Mayor Kelly made a statement, supposed to be authorized by McCarthy and inspired by him, that the Governor had no right to attempt any interference with the government of this city. He scored the Governor for his action in threatening to declare martial law and practically defied the State authorities to assume jurisdiction over the internal government of the city.

The announcement of defiance created considerable excitement, many fearing that the defiance would precipitate matter and bring the militia out under the Governor's orders to take charge of the government.

In local sporting circles considerable bitterness is felt against the Sacramento authorities for "butting in."

NOT BEING SOBER FELT FREE TO KILL

HILO, June 17.—A serious cutting scrape took place last Sunday evening at Eight Miles, Olas, at about eight o'clock. The man who was stabbed is in a serious condition, and a murder case may be the result.

The defendant, a Japanese named Menyo, says that he was under the influence of liquor at the time. The injured man, Sugawara, had, it appears, been acting as a messenger for a man who owed money to Menyo. Sugawara told Menyo that this party would pay the money at a certain time, but this was not done, and Menyo blamed Sugawara. A quarrel resulted, in which it is alleged that the defendant stabbed Sugawara in the stomach with a pocket knife. He threw the knife away and went to bed, where he was when he was arrested. The injured man was taken to the hospital. Yesterday he was very low, and it is thought that he may die.
